

Funding to support ACTATE members to attend the National Conference for Teachers of English and Literacy

ACTATE will provide funding of up to $500 for financial members towards the cost of conference registration to attend AATE's annual national conference in 2011.

The 2011 National Conference Finding a Place for Falstaff: Language and Creativity in the Australian Curriculum will be held in Melbourne, Victoria from 3 – 6 December 2011.

For more information go to: www.englishliteracyconference.com.au

In return we would like you to contribute an article of approximately 1000 - 1500 words for the 2012 edition of ACTivATE. For more information about activate please contact activate@actate.org.au

Criteria for submission

1. Financial membership of ACTATE.
2. Commitment to a written report of a conference session for publication in ACTivATE by week 6 of term 3 20XX. The report must be written to publication standards, which will be provided to successful applicants.
3. Early career teachers (in first five years of teaching) are encouraged to apply.

Depending on the number of applications and whether the applicant is attending the future leaders' forum, funding will be at least $200.

Successful applicants will be notified by email. You can find out information about the conference and download a registration form at the conference website:

www.englishliteracyconference.com.au

Submission Form

I, _____, wish to apply for a grant to attend the AATE national conference in 2011. I have been teaching for _____ years. I hold an active ACTATE membership.

Signed

Date / /

Fax or post this submission by Monday 19 May 2009 to:

Michelle Morthorpe
ACTATE President
PO Box 4180
Hawker ACT 2614
Australia